Re: Transportes Navieros Y Terrestres v. Fairmount Heavy Transport 07 CV 3076

Honorable Judge Preska:

We represent the Defendant in the above captioned action. We write in relation to Your Honor's Order of earlier today extending Plaintiff's time until tomorrow at 5 p.m. in which to file opposition papers to the Order to Show Cause Why the Attachment Should Not Be Vacated. Plaintiff requested the extension on the basis that it needed extra time to obtain affidavits from Holland. Currently, other than Plaintiff's own deadline, no subsequent dates in that Order have been extended.

In light of the foregoing extension in Plaintiff's favor, which, unfortunately, does not allow sufficient time for Defendant, a Norwegian company, to coordinate with the undersigned or with its London and Rotterdam attorneys before filing a reply brief, Defendant respectfully requests that the hearing now scheduled for May 9, 2007 at 8:30 a.m. be adjourned until May 11, 2007 and that reply papers be due the day prior to the hearing.

We thank the Court for its indulgence.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles E. Murphy
